Census
2010

Jobs. Roads. Hospitals. Schools.

The 2010 Census matters for every Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender person. The census counts same-sex partners, and for the first time in 2010 will count same-sex married couples.

Transgender respondents are counted as the gender they identify.

Fill out the census form and mail it back when it comes in March. By law, your responses are confidential and cannot be shared with anyone.
